Important: A Request for Reconsideration is not a substitute for a Court appeal. When a Request for Reconsideration is filed, the Board will respond within five business days advising both the Petitioner and the Department that either: 1) the Request for Reconsideration is denied and the Board will not issue a Reconsidered Order; or 2) the Request for Reconsideration is granted in which case the Board will further review the Request for Reconsideration and will subsequently issue a Reconsidered Order. If the Board responds that a Reconsidered Order will be issued, the Reconsidered Order will be a “final order” appealable to the Court as set forth above.

COLLECTION OF AMOUNTS DUE -- You are further advised that if, pursuant to the enclosed Order, you are found by the Board to owe taxes and/or penalties to the Commonwealth, you may be required to post security before the appeal can operate as a supersedeas. If security is not posted as required, the Commonwealth may file liens and pursue collection of unpaid amounts.

Confidential information includes: an individual’s Social Security number, home address, driver’s license number, personal financial information, personal telephone numbers, personal e-mail addresses, and personal identification numbers; records identifying children 17 years of age or younger; and specific dollar amounts of tax. In addition, the Board will redact from the published Order any information identified by the Petitioner as and that meets the definition of a trade secret or confidential proprietary information as defined in section 102 of the act of February 14, 2008 (P.L. 6, No. 3), known as the Right-to-Know Law.
